Minutes away from Zurich yet nestled in the heart of Swiss nature, with Swiss hospitality at its heart, the Dolder Grand has tales of love entwined through its 125-year history. Seamlessly marrying the glamour of the past with the comforts of the future, offering Michelin-starred gastronomy, an award-winning Spa, the wildest and most luxurious of Suites and a host of bespoke experiences, the fairytale city resort is an extraordinary haven for romance.

The dreamy exterior of the main hotel building, a magnificent castle, is juxtaposed against Sir Norman Foster's glass-clad extension, a multi-million-dollar renovation that breathes an air of contemporary brilliance into the building. An industry institution with an astonishing past, the Dolder Grand pushes not only the boundaries of design, but of tradition, innovation and above all, guest experience.

About the Dolder Grand

The Dolder Grand is a 175-room city resort nestled in the hills overlooking the vibrant lakeside city of Zurich and the picturesque Swiss Alps. Since opening its doors in 1899, the legendary hotel has played host to numerous international artists, renowned musicians, and prominent dignitaries, and over the years has established itself as a must-see culinary, wellness, and arts destination with a host of accolades to its name. Reimagined by acclaimed architect Lord Norman Foster in 2008, The Dolder Grand's historic, castle-like façade serves as a contrast to the impressive contemporary art collection housed within the hotel, including works by Salvador Dalí, Takashi Murakami, and Jani Leinonen. The Dolder Grand offers four distinct, and highly innovative dining concepts: The Restaurant (2-Michelin star and 19 GaultMillau points), Mikuriya (16 GaultMillau points), Saltz (15 GaultMillau points), and a new seasonal vegan/vegetarian garden restaurant, blooms (15 GaultMillau points). These remarkable culinary offerings, in addition to a lively bar and rotating pop-ups such as the Grand Heritage, reaffirm the hotel's standing as a place of daring culinary experimentation and most recently earned it the title of GaultMillau's 'Hotel of the Year 2024'. The Dolder Spa is over 4,000 sq meters and features an expansive indoor pool, hot and cold plunge pools, sauna, steam, aroma pool, solarium, snow room, meditation room, a sun-soaked outdoor terrace, and more. A proud member of Leading Hotels of the World, Swiss Deluxe Hotels, and Responsible Hotels of Switzerland, the world-class city resort masters the art of Swiss hospitality and invites guests to enjoy the magic of Zurich in the most memorable of settings.
